Summary:

On 05/30/2012, a 77 year old victim, who lives by herself, was approached by Jerome Davis and his crew. The victim was asked if they could do yard work for her "real cheap" and she accepted. No yard work was performed and Davis wanted $1,200.00 for the services. When the victim refused to pay that amount, the suspect became verbally aggressive and out of fear, the victim gave him a check. The victim later went to the bank in order to cancel the check; however, the check had already been cashed by Davis. Upon returning home, Davis and his crew were at victim's residence requesting an additional $300.00. The victim went to the bank and withdrew an additional $300.00. Bank personnel became concerned for the victim on her second visit and asked her why she needed the money. The victim explained the situation and bank personnel later went to the victim's residence and observed that there was no yard work completed. The suspect has an arrest history of Robbery, Elderly Abuse, and Embracery.
