* For Immediate Release *******

Incident: Entering Auto
Date: 06/13/16
Location: 118 Perimeter Center West, Dunwoody, Georgia

On 04/11/16 between the hours of 12:30pm and 2:15pm the pictured subjects entered two vehicles in the parking lot of Chuy's Restaurant, located at 118 Perimeter Center West, by punching a hole in the door handle of each vehicle. The males then removed several items from each vehicle, including credit cards. At least one of these credit cards was later used at Wal-Mart, located at 1105 Research Center Drive in Atlanta. Both males were last seen leaving this location in a white newer-model Chevrolet Malibu with an unknown license plate number.

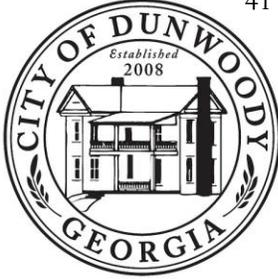

On 06/01/16 between the hours of 6:30pm and 8:30pm the same subjects entered two vehicles in the parking lot of J. Alexander's Restaurant, located at 4701 Ashford Dunwoody Road, by punching a hole in the door handle of each vehicle. The males then removed several items from each vehicle, including credit cards. At least one of these credit cards was later used at Target, located at 100 Perimeter Center Place in Dunwoody, at approximately 7:06pm. No vehicle description is available for these incidents.

If you recognize one or both suspects or the vehicle involved, or if you have any information on these incidents, please contact Detective Jesus Maldonado at (678) 382-6914 or at jesus.maldonado@dunwoodyga.gov.
