

THE CITY OF DUNWOODY, GEORGIA NOTICE OF ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS MEETING

The City of Dunwoody Zoning Board of Appeals will meet on Thursday, January 7, 2016 at 6:00 p.m. in the Council Chambers of Dunwoody City Hall, which is located at 41 Perimeter Center East, Dunwoody, Georgia 30346, to hear the following applications:

ZBA 16-011: David Mahl, owner of 5314 Manhasset Cove, Dunwoody, GA 30338, seeks a variance from Chapter 27, Section 27-58, to encroach the rear yard setback for the construction of a deck. The tax parcel number is 18 375 02 035.

ZBA 16-012: Michael Seeley, owner of 4994 Oak Trail Drive, Dunwoody, GA 30338, seeks a variance from Chapter 27, Section 27-58, to encroach the street yard setback for the construction of a porch. The tax parcel number is 18 363 01 060.

ZBA 16-013: Uwe Haarhoff, owner of 1314 Valley View Road, Dunwoody, GA 30338, seeks the following: A variance from Chapter 16, Sec. 16-78 to encroach the City's 75 foot stream buffer; A variance from Chapter 27 Section 27-147 to reduce the contextual setback, related to the construction of a new house. The tax parcel number is 18 365 10 022.

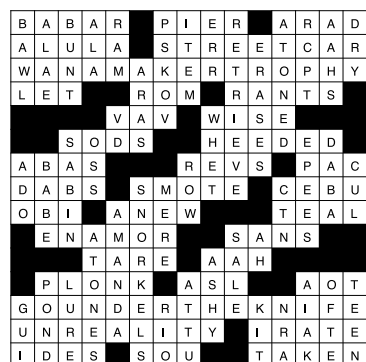

ZBA 16-014: CQ Dunwoody Village Court, LLC, owner of 1530 and 1536 Dunwoody Village Parkway, Dunwoody, GA 30338 by Marian Adeimy, attorney for contract purchaser, seeks the following variances for the construction of a 79-unit townhome development:

- a.) Variance from Ch. 27 Sec. 27-142 to reduce the rear to front building separation,
- b.) Variance from Ch. 27 Sec. 27-142 to reduce the rear to rear building separation,
- c.) Variance from Ch. 27 Sec. 27-142 to reduce the rear to side building separation,
- d.) Variance from Ch. 27 Sec. 27-208 to reduce the minimum driveway length,
- e.) Variance from Ch. 16 Sec. 16-78 to encroach the City's 75-foot stream buffer

The tax parcel numbers are 18 366 06 061 and 18 366 06 065.

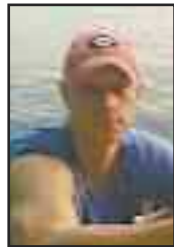

Should you have any questions, comments, or would like to view the application and supporting materials, please contact the City of Dunwoody Community Development Department at 678-382-6800. Members of the public are encouraged to call or schedule a meeting with staff in advance of the Public Hearing if they have questions or are unfamiliar with the process. Staff is available to answer questions, discuss the decision-making process, and receive comments and concerns.

Crossword from page 10:

OBITUARIES

Harrison T. Bone, known as Trent to everyone, passed away unexpectedly Nov. 27, 2015.

Trent Bone

He was born on June 22, 1989 and was a native Atlantan.

Trent was a graduate of Dunwoody High School and attended Georgia State University.

He leaves behind his mother, Julia Bone, and two siblings H. Beau Bone of Malaga, Spain and Emmeline Bone of New York, N.Y.

He was funny, articulate, polite, and liked by all that knew him.

A private funeral service will be held Tuesday, Dec. 1 at Sandy Springs Chapel, Sandy Springs with interment at Arlington Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to FurKids Animal Rescue and Shelters, 2650 Pleasantdale Rd, Atlanta, 30340 (770) 613-0009.

Patricia Bethea Bell (May 15, 1931 - November 22, 2015)

Pat Bell

With great sadness we announce the passing of Patricia Bethea Bell.

Mrs. Patricia Bethea Bell (née Nelms Bethea), of Dunwoody, passed away on Sunday, Nov. 22, 2015 at the age of 84.

Pat was born to parents Maj. William Linton and Ethel Vivian Bethea (nee Nelms) on May 15, 1931 in Augusta, Ga. Linton was serving the Medical Corps and a veteran of the First World War. Pat was the second of Linton and Ethel's children (her older brother Robert passed away in September 2015).

When Pat was 6, the family moved to Fort Bayard, N. M., where Linton was reassigned. She lived in New Mexico until she was 13. Her whole life, she held many fond memories of the New Mexico terrain and lifestyle.

In the fall of 1944, the family moved to Redondo Beach, Ca. She would spend her high school years during the post-war boom of Southern California. Linton passed away during this time and as she graduated high school, Pat and her mother moved back to Ethel's hometown of Thorndale, Penn.

Pat entered West Chester University and graduated in 1953 with a degree in elementary education. For several years she taught fourth and second grade classes, until 1957 when she enrolled in a graduate program at Duke University. She went on to get her graduate degree from Duke and in the summer of 1958 started teaching on the American Army base in Kaiserslautern, Germany.

Pat met Chuck Bell in Kaiserslautern, Germany, in 1959. Chuck was stationed there as a Captain in the U.S. Army. When Chuck signed up for the Rangers he was transferred to Fort Benning and he asked Pat to marry him. The couple was wed in Fort Benning just as Chuck went off to Ranger training.

In 1961, after the birth of their first son, Charles Stuart, the couple moved to Fort Lee, Va. Pat continued to teach. Then in the winter of 1962 Chuck was shipped to Korea and the family went with him. While in Korea, the Bell's had two more children, Robert Blair and David Scott. In 1964, Chuck retired from military service and moved back to the states. For a time the family lived in Millis, Mass. Finally, the family moved to Atlanta in 1966 and Pat has lived at the same residence in Dunwoody ever since.

All that knew her, will remember how much she loved her pets, her family, her friends and whatever adventures she could combine with those three elements. Her loyalty, her wit and her smile will not be forgotten by anyone she graced.

Pat is survived by her three sons; Charles Stuart (wife Marvel), Robert Blair and David Scott (wife Jennifer); and three grandsons; William Cooper, Jackson Connor and Hunter Yeats.

A ceremony will take place at St. Patrick's Episcopal Church, 4755 N Peachtree Rd. The family is grateful for the condolences and asks that in lieu of flowers a donation be made to Well Pet Humane at donaatenow.networkforgood.org/atlantaanimalalliance.

John S. "Jack" Kidd, 84, of Atlanta, passed away on Friday, Nov. 13, 2015 following a brief illness.

At age 9, with his mother dying of TB, Jack was placed in an orphanage in rural Tennessee where the children grew their own crops and livestock. After graduating high school, he joined the Army and was stationed in Germany. In the course of his deployment in Army Intelligence, he learned several languages, then joined the C.I.A. where he was stationed in the Middle East. He went on to teach himself computer technology, which he applied to later positions with Honeywell.

A gifted artist, Jack excelled at every art form he attempted, including drawing, painting, calligraphy, wood carving, sand blasting and various construction projects.

Jack Kidd

Jack enjoyed sailing and taking his family on trips around the country and to Mexico. He was very adventurous, and these trips often included an element of danger. He never lost his love of adventure or sense of humor.

Jack is survived by his loving wife, Lois, of 62 years; son Daryl Kidd (Jackie) of Kennewick; son Geoffrey Kidd of Germantown, Md.; daughter Amy Hall of Richmond Hill, Ga.; son Bobby Kidd (Miriam) of Windermere, Fla.; and six grandchildren.

A private celebration of Jack's life will be held in the spring.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to the Homes for Our Troops foundation (www.hfotusa.org).

Raymond Joseph Cronin, 77, of Melbourne, Fla., passed away on Nov. 17, 2015 with his family at his side.

Born on Oct. 23, 1938 in Philadelphia to the late Joseph and Rose Marie Cronin, Raymond graduated from East Mecklenburg High in Charlotte, N.C. in 1956, and received a Bachelors of Science in Engineering from North Carolina State University in 1960. He was a veteran of the United States Army Reserve.

He married Valerie Ross (Cronin) in July 1962 and they settled in Richmond, Va., later residing in Atlanta, Hartford, and Charlotte, and then spending many years in Atlanta. Raymond retired in 2002 and they relocated to Melbourne, Fla.

Raymond spent most of his career as an underwriting specialist at Aetna Insurance, later becoming Vice President of the private brokerage Oberdorfer, Hogg, Robinson.

Raymond is survived by his wife of 53 years, Valerie Ross Cronin, his children J. Markham and Sara Cronin of Coconut Grove, Fla., Kevin and Miriam Cronin of Westborough, Mass., Michael and Heather Cronin of Satellite Beach, Fla., and Courtenay and Christopher Dutton of Atlanta. He was the devoted grandfather to 12 grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at Suntree United Methodist Church in Melbourne on Saturday, Dec. 12 at 11 a.m. In lieu of flowers, it was Raymond's wish that donations be made to the Pilot's Club of South Brevard at 2580 Forest Run Dr. Melbourne, 32935.