The City of Dunwoody

Regionally recognized as the home of Perimeter Mall and the Perimeter Center business district, Dunwoody is also renowned in the Atlanta metro area as an established, accessible and inclusive community. From its beginnings, Dunwoody has held close to its strong sense of place. Today, the city's thriving retail, dining, lodging and corporate office space are features which attract people from all over the area and nation. But at its core, Dunwoody is a combination of a dynamic business district, strong neighborhoods, thriving schools, volunteerism and community pride.

Dunwoody's citizens, its geographic layout and the strong neighborhoods and community subdivisions provide a little bit of everything for all tastes and interests. As the city grows and prospers strategic planning and public participation from our knowledgeable and engaged citizens help shape the unique offerings of the city's neighborhoods and character areas. From east to west and north to south, walkability and quality of life are influential factors for new homeowners and new business development.
