POLICE

Highlights:

- August 15, 2024: National Night Out event at Brook Run Park. Local partners: DeKalb Fire Rescue, ChatComm, DeKalb DA’s Office, Dunwoody Police Foundation, and GOHS, who provided a free rollover simulator experience for visitors. The North Metro SWAT armored vehicle was also on hand for tours.
- August 20, 2024: Homeless Outreach project. Officers partnered with the Continuum of Care (CoC) to reach out to local homeless citizens. The team has started collecting names and has spoken to these citizens regarding resources available to them.
- September 3 & 5, 2024: Officer Hernandez presented a High School Safety Presentation to the Dunwoody High School (DHS) Junior and Senior Class to discourage students from committing illegal acts during the Junior and Senior Wars.
- September 15, 2024: Beth Shalom C.R.A.S.E. class. Deputy Chief Fladrich (certified instructor) taught a Civilian Response to Active Shooter Events class for members of Beth Shalom.

- September 16, 2024: Free Child Safety Seat Check event held in City Hall parking lot. A total of 12 households stopped by for help installing their child safety seat correctly and were educated on child safety seat tips and guidelines.
- September 19, 2024: Public Safety Cadet Open House event. Showcased various divisions of the police department to potentially new Public Safety Cadets.
- October 3, 2024: Public Works Director Michael Smith, Deputy Chief Fladrich and Lt. Dove attended a half-day tabletop exercise orchestrated by Dekalb EMA and Dekalb watershed to address the public safety and governmental response to a potential dam collapse to the north (towards Sandy Springs and Gwinnett Co.) and the resulting destruction from such a catastrophic event.
- October 3, 2024: DeKalb County has partnered with Frontline Response which aids the homeless for up to one year. So far, four vagrants inside the City of Dunwoody have accepted this service.

Upcoming Events:

- October 24, 2024: See & Be Seen Campaign at Brook Run Park's Truck or Treat event. DPD officers & staff will pass out free safety flashers for kids to wear while Trick-or-Treating.
- October 11, 2024: Pizza with Police event to take place during National Faith & Blue Weekend (Oct 11-14) at Brook Run Park. Partnering with local churches, Pizza with Police offers church members and other citizens an opportunity to enjoy fellowship and create new connections with both Church and Police on a casual basis, without any structured agenda.

Accolades and Happenings:

- September 9, 2024: Sgt. Nelson was presented a Medal of Meritorious Service at the Council Meeting for saving the life of a choking young child using one of our newly acquired Life Vac rescue suction devices.

Workload/Activities:

- Officers responded to an Agency Assist for Sandy Springs Police Department; K-9 responded to assist with an article search at the Sonesta in regard to the double shooting earlier in the evening.
- Officers responded to a Fight Call on Peachtree Industrial Blvd. A male victim reported being assaulted by a group of juveniles, possibly armed with knives, stemming from a school conflict. Victim sustained minor injuries but declined medical attention. Suspects fled before police arrival. The victim's father will follow up with school authorities.
- Officers responded to a Lost Child Call on Lake Ridge Lane in reference to a 3-year-old boy who was found wandering around the parking lot. Officers spoke with on-site maintenance staff who were able to show officers where the child lived. The father advised he was changing his other child's diaper, and the mother was cooking when the 3-year-old must have slipped out the front door, which was left unlocked. A DFACS referral form was submitted.

- Officers responded to an Assault Call at Best Buy. A 65-year-old male visited Best Buy after realizing his soundbar, which was an open box item, was missing a remote. When the manager told him he would need to contact the customer service line, he became upset and threw the soundbar at him. He also hit him and spat in his face. Warrants were secured for simple battery.
- Officers responded to a Large Car Meet Up Call at the Publix on Ashford Dunwoody Road. At 11:45pm, approximately 50 vehicles revving engines were gathered in the Publix parking lot. Officers escorted them out of the city. Two of the vehicles were involved in a rear end accident as they left the city.
- Officers responded to an Armed Robbery Call at Atlanta Memorial Park Cemetery. Victim stated that 2 black males approached him and robbed him at gunpoint, taking his wallet, $5K in cash, and the keys to his truck. The victim stated that he had just closed his business for the night, which was why he had the large amount of cash. A suspect vehicle was located on Flock following the victim from Norcross to Dunwoody.
- As a large storm approached Dunwoody, on-duty nightshift officers were complemented by a large contingent of off-duty officers and civilians who stood ready to respond to the effects of Hurricane Helene. Utilizing the RTCC and PD personnel in the field, a solid emergency response was fielded in conjunction with Public Works crews being directed out of the RTCC by Director Michael Smith.

Several roads had to be closed due to fallen trees and flooding was monitored through a few intersection cameras. These operations carried over into the next morning and were appropriately addressed until the event was over.

- Officers responded to a Medical Call on Winter Rose Ct. in reference to a 16-year-old male who was unconscious and not breathing. The juvenile's mother-initiated CPR and was relieved by officers. Two doses of Narcan were initiated as well as an AED, which indicated: "no shock advised". CPR was continued and the juvenile eventually regained consciousness and was transported to CHOA.
